1. In some lone camp far o'er the sea, The same moon shines on him, as me, My
 2. In that lone camp far o'er the sea, This mes-sage bear to him from me, Your kha-ki boy at his night watch keep, While all a-round his com-rades sleep, Good coun-try, lad, looks now to you, And knows you're man-ly brave and true. Hit moon as thou shin-est on me from a-bove, Go to him and whisper my words of love, hard, and you'll con-quer in the fight, For God, Hu-man-i-ty and the Right,

Car - ry this mes - sage to him, from me, In that dis - tant camp far o'er the sea,
With our Old Glo - ry on high, un - furld Sweet peace with hon - or help bring the world,

Car - ry this mes - sage to him, from me, In that dis - tant camp far o'er the sea, rit.
With our Old Glo - ry on high, un - furld Sweet peace with hon - or help bring the world, rit.

REFRAIN A little faster

Boy of mine, in the line, Fight - ing for old U. S. A. If you on - ly knew how much we miss you, And how man - y pray'rs we each day say, All for you my love true,

Are our thots when day is done, — God keep you safe and free from harm we pray, rit. Un - til this strife is won. D.S. 8
